Posted on September 25, 2012 at 09:00 AM EDT

CALABASAS, CA -- (Marketwire) -- 09/25/12 -- TEQlease Capital, a nationwide provider of equipment lease financing solutions, announced today that the company has provided Avenues: The World School, a New York City N-12 private school, with lease financing of over $1.5 million for infrastructure technology equipment for its new building in the Chelsea area of Manhattan.

"As part of our mission to drive innovation in the classroom, we know we must also ensure our students are fluent in using technology and are thereby truly digital citizens," said Dirk DeLo, chief technology officer of Avenues: The World School and an Apple Distinguished Educator. "The financing from TEQlease has allowed us the flexibility and customization we need to build a world class technology infrastructure that includes a robust wireless network, SMART projectors, wireless screen sharing, web cameras, collaborative academic technology tools and interactive displays of students' work. We will also be supplying each student with a laptop and/or a tablet computer."

ABOUT Avenues: The World School

Avenues: The World School has just opened its flagship campus in the Chelsea area of New York City for nursery through ninth grade (with grades 10-12 opening in the next three years). The Chelsea campus, on the High Line, is envisioned to be the first of a worldwide system of schools around the world all teaching the same curriculum. Started in 2009 by Chris Whittle, Alan Greenberg and Benno Schmidt, Avenues is planned to be one highly-integrated "learning community," connected and supported by a common vision, a shared curriculum, collective professional development of its faculty, the wonders of modern technology and a highly-talented headquarters team located in New York City. For more information, please contact Avenues at 212-935-5000.
